ALLEGED WHIPPER
IS PLACED ON TRIAL

Thomas Higginbotham
Faces Jury at Lake City, Fla.

START DELAYED
AS COURT OPENS

Third Judge Now Rules
Proceedings, Others
Were Disqualified

(Associated Press.)

Lake City, Fla., June 4.—Thomas Walter Higginbotham, convict whipping boss, went on trial here today on a charge of first degree murder in connection with the death of Martin Tabert, of North Dakota, who died, the state charges, as a result of a flogging administered by Higginbotham at the Putnam Lumber company's camp at Clara.

The defense contends Tabert died of natural causes. Shortly after convening the court recessed until late this afternoon because of the absence of L. E. Wade, leading counsel for the defense. It was expected hearing of testimony from approximately 80 witnesses, summoned by the state and defense, would be reached tomorrow.

Judge M. A. McMullin, of Clearwater, Fla., is presiding at the trial, having been assigned to the case by governor Hardie. Judge McMullin is the third to have connection with the case, one judge having been disqualified by a move by the defense and the 2nd being eliminated by a change of venue obtained by the state when the trial opened at Cross City.

The state contended a fair and impartial could not be had at Cross City, declaring the Putnam Lumber company, in whose employ Higginbotham acted as whipping boss at the time he is alleged to have flogged Tabert, owned about 75 per cent of the land in the country and paid 65 per cent of the county's taxes. At Cross City court was held in a little church in the woods and the judge occupied the pulpit, but here the trial is being held in a modern courthouse with a leather-cushioned bench for the judge.

Graves Decorated
Of Heroic Dead

The decorations of the graves of the Confederate Veterans in the city cemetery occurred Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock under the leadership of the Joe Wheeler chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

A good percentage of the membership took part in the service, stated Mrs. W. J. Garnett, president of the organization, this morning.

About a dozen additional markers were placed on the graves of the Confederate veterans in addition to the evergreen wreaths placed on the graves. About 100 such wreaths were placed.

Each wreath was tied with a scarlet ribbon, thus making the two colors of the Confederacy.

Bandits Enrolled
In National Army

(Associated Press.)

Peking, June 4.—Enrollment of the Shantung bandits into the national army is proceeding at Tsaochwang, according to advices received at the American legation today, but those of the bandits who do not desire to become soldiers are slipping away, leaving their rifles behind. Members of the legation feel that it will be only a matter of days until the eight foreigners, still held on Taotzuku mountain, are released.

Barring unforeseen complications, the negotiations are expected to result successfully within a short time.

ROSER INJURED

Fred Roser was painfully hurt Sunday afternoon when he was thrown from a buggy on Grant street. The horse being driven by Mr. Roser was said to have turned across the car tracks and in some manner the buggy was overturned. Mr. Roser and another occupant of the buggy were hurt.

HARDING VERSUS FORD OR UNDERWOOD?

Henry J. Allen

Henry J. Allen former Republican Governor of Kansas has stated in London his belief that President Harding will be a candidate for re-election and that he will be opposed by either Henry Ford automobile manufacturer or Oscar W. Underwood, United States Senator from Alabama.
Allen denied that he intends to seek the Republican nomination. Democratic leaders, he said, are for Underwood, but he is skeptical about their ability to control the national convention.

COTTON CONDITION
IN ALABAMA IS 70

Montgomery, Ala., June 4.—The condition of cotton in Alabama was found to be 70 per cent of normal as of May 25 last, comparing with a condition of 80 on the same date last year.
The lower condition this year is due to unfavorable weather, resulting in an unusually small plant with grassy fields in some sections. Stands are good in practically all places where the plant is up though the continual rains may soon destroy a heavy proportion of that which is growing. Complaints of leaching out of nitrogenous fertilizers come from sandy lands, mainly in cases where nitrate of soda was used at the time of planting.
Some plant food will undoubtedly be lost from this cause, and will have to be replaced by later applications if continued fertilization is desired.

According to past records a condition of 70 on May 25 indicates an acre-yield of 129 pounds, provided conditions remain constant as at present until harvest. No acreage figures are yet available and therefore no forecast of total production can be made at this time.

It is also announced on authority from the Washington office that the planted acreage in Alabama last year has been revised to 2,807,000 and the acreage picked to 2,771,000. The average yield per acre of last year is fixed at 142 pounds of lint cotton.

Reports to this office indicate that 88 per cent of the cotton acreage this year has been fertilized, compared with 78 per cent last year; and that an average of 230 pounds per acre has been used this year, compared with 210 pounds last year. Tax tag sales by the state department of agriculture to date are about 47 per cent greater than to the same date last year.

The condition of cotton crop-reporting districts is shown as follows:

DRY LAWS WILL BE APPLIED TO LETTER

Beverages Are Barred From Territorial
Waters of U. S.

FEW EXEMPTIONS
MADE BY ORDER

Congress May Be Told
To Find Way Out
Of Difficulty

(Associated Press.)

Washington, June 4.—Application to the letter of the supreme court decision, barring all beverage liquors from territorial waters of the United States, is provided in regulations issued by the treasury to take effect after 12:01 a. m. June 10.

Specifically the regulations, as published today, apply the three mile deadline to liquor carried for beverage use on any United States or foreign vessel, as sea stores. It was by finding some means of exemption for liquor so carried, that treasury officials had hoped at first to avoid conflict with foreign laws.

Beside the exemption granted liquor for medicinal and sacramental purposes, the only exemption in the wall thrown up against liquor transportation within the three mile limit, are the usual immunity accorded diplomats and the privileges allowed foreign vessels of war.

Also vessels forced by distress into an American harbor and able to show that the necessity of refuge was grave will, if they have liquor aboard, be permitted to give bond for faithful observance of the dry law, while some treasury officials felt that congress might find a way of alleviating the situation, which it was generally agreed would prove embarrassing to international commerce, others were convinced that only a change in the eighteenth amendment itself would permit this.

Little Girl Hurt
By a Taxi-Cab

Latest accounts from the little daughter of Drew H. Lackey, who on Sunday morning was struck by an automobile, state that she is rapidly recovering from the shock. No bones were broken and the little girl seems to have sustained only a severe shakeup. The accident occurred near the parents home in South Albany.

Those who observed the accident state that the Twin City-Hartselle-taxicab a large automobile driven by Russell Ross, was proceeding down Fourth avenue Sunday morning bound for Hartselle when the little girl, who had been near an ice wagon on the opposite side of the street from her home, started across Fourth avenue just in time to meet the wheels of the big machine, but Mr. Ross had slowed down on sight of the girl and prevented what might have proven a very serious accident.

The father of Drew H. Lackey, and grand father of the little girl who was injured, witnessed the accident from his seat on the front porch of the residence of his son, which is in the 1100 block on Fourth avenue.

Tennessee Valley
Bankers Have 'cue

About 75 representatives of the Tennessee Valley system banks left this morning at 10:45 o'clock for Bluff City, some 18 miles up the Tennessee river toward Gunterville, where a mammoth barbecue will be enjoyed by the bank people and their friends.

This evening at 6 o'clock the same company expects to return and hold a banquet in the Kiwanis club.

WILSON IN ATHENS
AWAITS HIS FATE

Condemned Man Back
In Limestone Jail
After Motor Trip

NO DECISION YET
ON COMMUTATION

Governor Declines To Make Statement On Plea of Youth

Tom Wilson, Huntsville youth, now under sentence to be hanged on Friday, June 8, in Athens, for the murder of Kirby Cole, of Athens, is incarcerated again in the Limestone county jail, after a long stay in the Jefferson County jail in Birmingham.

Wilson was placed in the Limestone county jail between 8 and 8:30 o'clock last night, after a long motor ride from Birmingham to Athens Sunday afternoon.

The condemned man was turned over to Deputy Sheriff V. B. Gilbert, of Limestone county, Sunday afternoon by the Jefferson authorities, under authority of an order for the return of the prisoner, signed by Judge James E. Horton, of the eighth judicial circuit.
Closely guarded Wilson, in custody of four Limestone officers left soon after noon on the return trip to Athens.
Wilson had been in jail in Birmingham since June, 1922.

Governor W. W. Brandon, who was in Birmingham last night, was quoted in morning press dispatches as having declared he was not informed of the intention to remove Wilson to the Limestone jail. The governor said he had no statement to make at this time on the case and a decision is not expected until the return of the executive from the Shrine ceremonial in Washington.

Telephonic advices to The Daily this morning from Athens said that Wilson was held in the county jail there. The prison is well guarded, at all times, it was stated but no special guard had been placed on duty since Wilson returned.

Sunshine Help To County's Farmers

"We will kill a lot of grass and weeds if we can only get a few more dry days," said former Representative A. G. Wilhite of Falkville, who was here on business today. "The people are deep in the grass now, but they are working their way out and another week of sunshine will make a world of difference in Morgan County. I notice the weeds are waist high in some of the low lands where the corn should be almost that high.
The cotton stand is good in some localities, but as a rule the seeds did not come up well."

"On the whole I believe the cotton crop is in a worse condition now than it was this time last year," concluded Mr. Wilhite.

Membership of Club Will Meet

The membership and all others interested in the new golf and country club were requested to meet at the chamber of commerce Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock to decide on the location of the new course.

Charlie Hall, professional of Roebuck Springs, has been here and looked over available sites and aided the club in narrowing the proposed sites down to two, one of which will be selected tonight.

John E. Crawford
Called by Death

John E. Crawford died yesterday afternoon at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. W. McNeal, 716 Fifth Avenue, West. Funeral services will be conducted from the residence this afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. S.
D. Monroe, pastor of the First Baptist church. Interment will be made in the city cemetery. Mr. Crawford is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Mc-Neal and Mrs. A. C. Coyle, of Birmingham; two sons, C. E. and Clyde Crawford, of Albany.

RAIL LABOR BOARD NOT LIKE-LY TO SURVIVE

Samuel Rea, M.L.

Open defiance of the Railroad Labor Board by the Pennsylvania Railroad, coupled with the fact that the Board apparently has accepted this defiance in meekness and humility, has led official Washington to believe that the board cannot endure much longer. The official execution, according to plans now being perfected by its enemies, will take place soon after the new Congress convenes. Labor is bitter because of the manner in which the board has accepted the flat refusal of Samuel Rea, Pennsylvania president, to abide by that body's decisions, and its spokesmen have pointed out that when rail shopmen refused last year to accept an award lowering their wages the board branded the shopmen's organization as "outlaws."

HOLY SPIRIT TEXT
OF FINE SERMON

The most interesting part of an able sermon on the office and work of the Holy Spirit by Dr. James D. Wallace, pastor of the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning came toward the last of the discourse when the preacher by the use of illustrations showed how the power of the Spirit had effected the lives of certain people. Dr. Wallace first told of J. M.
Monroe Taylor the Missionary to China being moved by the Spirit to invite a high Chinese official to be his guest on a boat out of Peking instead of the missionary knocking the Chinese man in the face. Missionary Taylor had bought and paid for a seat on the boat the Chinaman wanted and when the Oriental found Taylor a member of a despised race had the last boat seat, he struck the American preacher full in the face. Taylor enraged at such an insult—one entirely unprovoked—was about to smash the Chinese man, when the Spirit prompted another and quite different method, with the final result the missionary gained a friend for his Christ in the offending Chinaman.

Dr. Wallace said a certain preacher in America found he was teaching his own ideas instead of preaching Christ, under the direction of the Holy Spirit and an American business man named Ennis, now active in the laymen's movements, directed by the Spirit, sold his brown stone mansion and let the proceeds of the sale go to the poor, in body and in mind—then later, the same man sold his modern cottage, for a smaller house and let the difference in price go into good works.

"The Holy Spirit has the right and authority to tell you how to live and what to do," said the preacher, "He will give you power. You will receive the Holy Spirit, if you are God's children and also meet certain conditions.
Just being consecrated is not the thing—that is only an attitude. It is meeting God-made conditions that bring the gift of the Spirit. The Spirit is not given to make you a child of God, but it comes to you because you are the child of God."

Dr. Wallace made these last statements with great earnestness, and expressed the hope it would be unneces-ary to repeat them in the future. The text used was taken from Gal. 4-6:
"And because ye are sons, God hath sent the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying 'Abba Father.'"

By way of introduction to his sermon Dr. Wallace said that people had a right to expect answers to their life-problems at the churches. He said that often truths taught from the

POWELL ANNOUNCES
LARGE INVESTMENTS
IN A MILL AT FLINT

Product Is Declared To Be Richer Than That Of Kentucky

WORK IS TO START ON PROJECT SOON

Development On a Big Scale Expected In Fields Near Here

L. D. Powell, Alabama manager of the Southern Rock Asphalt Company, recently incorporated with an authorized capital of $600,000.00 at Louisville, Ky., stated this morning that his company would begin mining asphalt and erect a refining plant near Flint within a short while.

Mr. Powell and employees of the company are now continuing the work of "core-drilling" near Flint, which was begun last August. Mr. Powell stated that the chemist of the home office in Louisville had made several analyses of Alabama asphalt in this section and had rendered a written opinion stating that the local asphalt "was richer than the Kentucky asphalt deposits belonging to the same company."

By "core-drilling" is meant the sinking of round holes into the ground to a depth of from 10 to 25 feet. The drills used are so made they bring out a solid section of earth, or asphalt rock as they descend. The incorporators of the new company are J. K. Jarvis, A. J. Goham and L. D. Powell, all of Louisville. One of the local men interested in the company is J. M. Clark, who is also one of the large stockholders in the Albany-Decatur Oil and Gas Company.

"You will recall that I was here last August," said Mr. Powell "and I have been here off and on since looking after our core drilling and seeing about leases. We are convinced that the asphalt is here in the right quality and in paying quantities and that now is the time to begin. We have tried out the whole project until we have convinced ourselves that we are not kidding ourselves, so we are ready to boost our enterprise. The most reliable chemist we can secure has given a written statement saying that the grade of asphalt found here is richer than the Kentucky asphalt being mined by our people in Kentucky. We are incorporated at $600,000 and the papers being issued only a few weeks ago.
We have gone slow in the matter, wishing to be fully assured before making large investments. We will soon begin the erection of a mill at Flint, and before long I hope our asphalt will be making your county roads as good as the best city streets."

Builder Of Streets
Sees Improvement

A billion and a half dollars worth of road building will be the record in this country this year, is the estimate of J. E. Donelson, of Birmingham, the builder of the majority of the streets of both Decatur and Albany.

Mr. Donelson's company was busy here twelve years ago he stated this morning while in the Twin Cities on his way to Tusculum where he has a paving contract with that city.

Some weeks ago Mr. Donelson took an auto trip through Indiana and he stated this morning that land on the pikes near Indianapolis was selling at $500 an acre, while land located several miles back brought only $75 an acre.

"Great improvements have appeared in the Tennessee Valley since I was up here some 15 years ago" stated Mr.
Donelson.

"Of course the whole country is prosperous now, but prosperity seems to be running riot in Alabama."

WE FAVOR ACCEPTANCE OF HENRY FORD'S BID FOR MUSCLE SHOALS.THE COMMANDING POSITION OF THE TWIN-CITIES.

Not too often nor too forcibly can the people of the Twin Cities be reminded of the strong physical position their cities occupy. These cities are not the center of the universe or of the country. They are not located at the only cross roads of the country; but they are at one of the important business crossings because of our roadways both by rail and by public highway—to say nothing of the river at our doors—powerful to carry freight to all parts of the world within a very few years—when the shoals waters at Muscle Shoals are made navigable.

Strategic positions have been sought always by men who expected to accomplish great and lasting results. In battle, generals spend much of their time contending for advantageous locations for their armies. In the every day dealings among men, it is the location of a piece of property that makes it valuable. If a farm is for sale, the first question a prospective buyer asks is concerning its location regarding railroads and good public roads. Small plots of ground close to a railroad station are much more valuable than very large tracts located far inland from means of communication.

A man in the Twin Cities wanted "boot" between a five acre farm close to the Twin Cities in a proposed trade for a 100 acre farm twenty miles from the railroad.

The importance of location is clear without further illustration. The commanding position of the Twin Cities assure their success. But how large a success is attained in the future and how extensive are the developments here, depend on the actions of the people generally.

It will be impossible for the business world to overlook this district entirely; but unless everything is done for the best, that can be done, the Twin Cities may be overlooked in part and possibly in large part, by the builders and promoters of our generation.

Few sensations are so delightful or so utterly unattainable as complete irresponsibility—Ex.

WINIFRED BLACK WRITES ABOUT Ambition and Overwork

Copyright, 1923, by Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

A LITTLE discontented—this morning, are you? Things not going quite right? Husband read the paper all through breakfast, and last night when you wanted to go to the movies he said he was too tired?

And your best friend has a new spring hat that cost twice as much as yours, and her husband isn't half as successful in business as yours is?

And you can't make up your mind where to go this summer for your vacation?

The mountains are too hot and the seashore is too damp, and as for a farm in the country—ugh! mosquitoes, flies, and roosters—growing before daylight—no thank you!

And the windows of the florist shop are just crammed with spring flowers and Husband hasn't brought you one—not one. And always before this he's been telling you that you made him think of spring flowers, yourself—and oh, dear me, what's the use anyway!

Life used to be such a romance, with every new man a new story—maybe, and nobody ever knew what was coming round the corner, and you might have married that Englishman who wore a glass in his eye and said "only fancy" exactly like a man in a book! And there was that handsome southerner, with that fascinating accent of his! He never read the paper when you were around and, oh, the lovely things he was always saying about your eyes and the way you walk and everything!

No wonder women die young—there's nothing for a woman to live for after she's married and settled—and twenty-five!

Tragic isn't it?

Well, look at this letter from this woman and see what you'd do if you were in her place.

"What Would You Do?"

DEAR WINIFRED BLACK:

If you had a daughter-in-law of 40, who had a husband, two boys of 15 and 16, both high school students, and a baby of 2, a nine-room cottage to take care of and all the laundry, cooking, baking, sewing, etc., would you say she was not ambitious?

My mother-in-law said that to me because I do not take in dressmaking. I am kept busy from morn till night with my home, so how can she say anything like that? I blame my husband as much as I blame her, because he carries everything to his parents.

If it was not for my dear boys I could not stand his disagreeable nature. The other day he threw baby's biscuits at me and almost killed me, and he has threatened to kill us all if things do not please him.

THE LEADER OF THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY.

The birthday of Jefferson Davis, which occurred Sunday, is being celebrated today in many parts of the Southland, within whose borders Mr. Davis and his advisors sought to establish an independent republic. The cause of Jefferson Davis has been lost. The monument raised to his memory at Richmond, Va., the last capital of the Southern Confederacy, by his friends and admirers proclaims him as the only, as well as the first president of the proposed Southern republic. The cause of Mr. Davis was lost but the ideals for which he labored remain forever. No man who has ever felt the thrill of freedom or who instinctively rebels at other men imposing their wills upon others, can help but admire the brave stand Jefferson Davis and his Confederates took.

It is well, even more, it is important, that the country should pause one day in every year to do honor to the memory of Jefferson Davis. He was none the less a true American because he sided with his own people in what proved to be an unconflict. Because he and his government failed; because Davis was defeated, unappreciative and short-sighted people have sought to demean him, and to cover his fair name with many calumnies, slanders and even lies. One falsehood in particular made to follow Mr. Davis, even after his death, was that following the surrender of General Lee, the president of the beaten confederacy sought to make his escape from federal soldiers disguised as a woman. In late years that falsehood has been branded as untrue by the only men who could have known the facts, namely the members of the party that took him into custody.

To the shame of certain national leaders during the reconstruction period following the civil war, Mr. Davis was forced to remain in prison for two years and to suffer many indignities. Mr. Davis was finally admitted to bail when the great editor, Horace Greely and other leaders at the North, were allowed to become his bondsmen. Jefferson Davis was born in Kentucky in 1808 and died in New Orleans in 1889, while he was engaged in writing "The Rise and Fall of the Confederate Government."

ANOTHER MONUMENT TO PERSEVERANCE.

The Tri-Cities Daily edited and published by M. S. Hansborough is just entering its seventeenth year of service to the large and growing community of the Muscle Shoals district.

The success attained by Mr. Hansborough is one more of the miriads of successes attained in this country by industry, courage and perseverance.

In the past 15 years the Tri-Cities have experienced bad and good fortune, much of the time uncertainty has been present, but whether in evil or in good report, the Tri-Cities Daily has maintained its faith in the future of the Tri-Cities, and has continued to encourage the leaders of the community with good counsel, optimistic beliefs and cheerful opinions. The Tri-Cities Daily has been one of the able and patient supporters of the Ford bid for Muscle Shoals as well as of every other enterprise calculated to upbuild the Tri-Cities, and surrounding country.

To be a good runner of big business, one must not know much about running on ones own account.

Holy Spirit Text

Bible, caused people who were once self satisfied to become very dissatisfied. He said that he had been preaching a number of sermons on the Holy Spirit, as the Spirit was the recognized directing power of the church in the present age. Reference was made to the Holy Spirit and His office being of the New Testament, and the distinguishing doctrine of the Apostles. The teachings of the prophets of the Old Testament concerning the Spirit of God were not the same as Christ's teachings concerning the Holy Ghost.

The sermon was preached at the regular church service, which included a number of hymns led by the choir and joined in by the congregation, Mrs. H. Z. Kinney presided at the organ. A beautiful solo entitled: "Callest Thou thus Oh Father" was sung by Miss Elizabeth Wallace, just preceding the sermon.

Here's One Way

I think she tells her troubles to other people and never says a word to those who cause the trouble.

If I were in her place I would walk calmly over to my mother-in-law and I would say to her:

"What ridiculous nonsense is this you're saying about my doing dress-making to help support this family? Of course, I know you don't mean it—you couldn't mean it and be serious—but I do wish you wouldn't say it. It's insulting to my husband to insinuate that he isn't able to take care of his own family—and I think he's man enough to feel humiliated at the very idea."

"I do my work and take care of my children. I have paid for the house we live in and I'm glad to do it—now let's be good friends and stop fussing over nothing."

I'd say it all good-naturedly and calmly, and the next time any one began to hint to me along any such line as that, I'd laugh and change the subject.

But I would not laugh about the bicycle or any little episode like that. If such a thing ever happened again I would tell my husband that he had better find some other place to live—and I should expect my children to stand by me in my position. No woman can demand the respect of her children when she has not spirit enough to demand her husband's respect, too—no matter who he is or how either of them live.

Now, then, little Mrs. Discontented, things look a little brighter to you in your own comfy, shielded home—don't they, honestly now? They should, anyway.

Opening Dinner At Lyons Big Success

The Hotel Lyons Cafe presented an attractive appearance Friday on the occasion of the opening dinner given by Mr. Collas, the manager, for the benefit of the Benevolent Society Hospital. Branches of Dorothy Perkins roses covered the side lights and formed bouquets on the tables. The table for the bridal party of Mr. Jesse Crane and Miss Mary Clarie Carter having a basket of multicolor sweet peas.

Col. Harris entertained a party of nine in the private dining room. The guests were greeted at the door by a committee of the trustees of the Benevolent Society Hospital—Mrs. E. C. Payne, Mrs. J. W. Wyker, Mrs. Virginia Pride, Mrs. D. D. McGhee and Mrs. T. M. Dix, and were conducted to the tables by Misses Helen Wallace, Polly Robinson, Marie McGlawn, Bluet Wallace, Helen Russell and Mrs. Garner Pride.

The genial manager looked carefully after the wants of his guests, serving a beautiful chicken dinner, while a string band furnished sweet music. People showed their interest by a large attendance and made the occasion a distinctly social event. The result was the substantial sum of $82.50 for the Hospital Sterilizer fund, for which the trustees wish to express their thanks and appreciation to Mr. Collas and also to the Albany-Decatur Daily for publicity.

CONGRESSMAN ALMON

Congressman Edward B. Almon passed through here during the week end en route to Tuscaloosa where he will attend a meeting Tuesday in connection with the power development proposed by the Alabama Power Company at Lock 17. Tuscaloosa citizens will present their opposition to the plan at Tuesday's meeting. Congressmen of the state were invited to attend and it is stated here that a number will accept.

CLASS WELL ATTENDED

The early morning Sunday School at the R. R. Y. M. C. A. was well attended yesterday morning when Prof. J. D. Garron taught the regular international Sunday School lesson, in an earnest and attractive manner. Plans are on foot for a permanent organization of the school which will be announced in a few days.

912 Biscuits from One Bag of Flour

Here is real economy—a 24-pound bag of MERRY WIDOW FLOUR makes more than 900 biscuits. They are regular size biscuits too—2 1/4 inches in diameter and about one inch thick.

MERRY WIDOW Self-Rising Flour contains just the right amount of pure ingredients, so that you can make delicious biscuits almost as easily and quickly as you can slice bread. All you have to do is add milk or cold water and shortening, then bake.

MERRY WIDOW Self-Rising Flour is made by the Ford Flour Company, millers since 1895, the originators of self-rising flour. In spite of the many imitations, it is holding its old friends and making new ones every day. Here's the proof—over 600,000 more bags of MERRY WIDOW were used in 1922 than in 1920. Try it. You will never change. Ask for it by name.

There Is No Mystery About Telephone Toll Rates

PRIOR to the introduction of the present classified toll schedule, the Telephone Company offered its long distance service under only one class. All the rates for long distance service were based on person-to-person calls and on every call the Company would attempt to establish connection between particular persons.

An increasing number of people placed their calls for "Anyone," "Anybody," or for a station number, in spite of the fact that they might have requested connection with a particular party without having to pay an additional charge. The same rate applied whether the Company, from the nature of the call, furnished the service at a greater or lesser cost to itself.

With such a large number of patrons placing calls for "Anyone" or a station number, and it being possible to render this class of service with lesser operator's effort and lesser use of circuit, it appeared logical and desirable to make a rate differential between that class of service and particular person service. Especially so since the particular person service required, and still requires, a much greater effort by the operators and a much greater use of circuit facilities.

To meet this demand the classified schedule was established, with a minimum rate covering calls filed for "Anyone" or a station number. The classified toll schedule as now in effect consists of two major classes of long distance service, as follows:

1. Station-to-Station service, under which the person originating the call does not specify a particular person to be reached, but gives only the number of the telephone called or the name or address under which the telephone is listed. Charges for Station-to-Station calls are made when the connection is established with the station called. This class of service requires a minimum effort on the part of the Company, and is the basic class upon which the schedule is built.
2. Person-to-Person service, under which the person originating the call specifies a particular person to be reached. Charges for Person-to-Person calls begin only when connection is established with the particular person called. Orders for Person-to-Person calls are accepted only under the condition that a limited charge will be made, when under certain conditions, it is impossible to establish communication between specified persons, and this charge is referred to as a "Report Charge."

WATERS-HOLLAND

Miss Bonnie Evalana Holland and Mr. Lawrence A. Waters were quietly married on Sunday at 10:45 a. m. at her sister, Mrs. Carl Lee on Grant street. Rev. S. D. Monroe, pastor of the First Baptist church, of Albany, performed the ring ceremony in the presence of a few friends and relatives of the young couple.

The bride was especially attractive in her travelling suit of blue with harmonizing hat and shoes. Mr. and Mrs. Waters left at noon for a bridal trip to New Orleans and other southern points and after June the Tenth they will be at home to their friends in Birmingham.

Miss Holland is a native of the Twin Cities and her large number of friends here regret to learn that she will make her home in another city. Mr. Waters is an railroad employee on the L. & N.

EYSTER-DAUGHERTY

A wedding that came as a surprise to friends here was that of Miss Lena Daugherty, of Valdosta, Ga., and Mr. Jeff Eyster, who were married in Pulaski, Tenn., on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Daugherty arrived in the Twin Cities on Saturday morning to visit Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wright and they motored to Pulaski, marrying at the home of a minister there.

Miss Daugherty was a very attractive girl, of Valdosta and was a popular member of the young set there. The groom is a son of Judge C. Eyster and holds a position with the Silk Mills in Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Mann and baby, Ruby Lee, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howell in Falkville.

CRANE-CARTER

Cordial interest centered in the marriage of Miss Mary Claire Carter to Mr. Jesse Earl Crane, which was solemnized at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Carter, on Grant street. Dr. W. P. Reeves of the Central Baptist church was the officiating minister.

For the occasion, the living room and dining room were charmingly decorated with Jackson vine and Dorothy Perkins roses and lighted by candles in crystal holders. The scheme of decoration was designed by Mrs. F. F. Tidwell and proved an artistic success.

Before the wedding, the following musical program directed by Mrs. Seneca Burr, was delightfully rendered:

Violin solo, Salut de Amour (Edgar) —Miss Alice Hutton, O Promise Me (De Koven)—Mrs. H. H. Huddleston, The Greatest Wish in the World (De Raigo)—Mrs. H. R. Summer.

The only attendant of the bride was Mary Olive Jones, who bore the ring in the heart of a quaint colonial nosegay. Little Miss Jones was dressed in a frock of green organdy made very bonfroit and adorned with rosettes of embroidered roses and val lace.

The bride and groom met the minister at an improvised altar of tall white columns supporting many branched candelabra, and, under a hanging basket of bride roses, they pledged their marriage vows. The ring ceremony as performed by Dr. Reeves was unusually impressive.

The bride wore a travelling two-piece suit of combined beige and printed crepe. Her hat was a brown yoke adorned with roses of oranges and yellow shades. She carried a colonial bouquet of roses and sweet peas. Miss Carter was never more sweet and charming in appearance.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Crane left for a bridal journey which will include Cincinnati and Chicago.

Only the close friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Crane were invited to witness their marriage and the number who availed themselves of the invitation and the quantity of the wedding gifts testified to the esteem in which these young people were held.

Mrs. Jessie Thombs and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scanlon will have as their week-end guest, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Burge, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd. Miss Willie Blackman and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lloyd of Montgomery, Ala., who are on a motor trip to Akron, Ohio.

Mrs. J. E. Killgore, Mrs. John J. Prosser, Mrs. Robert Stamps, and Miss Mary Erp are at Curtis' Wells today.

Mrs. G. M. Baker, Miss Gussie Bennett and Miss Alice Gooch spent the week-end in Pulaski.

Miss Marjorie Beard, who has been at the Cathedral School in Washington, D. C., is now at home for vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Beard.

Miss Mary Turley will leave the latter part of the week for the University of Oklahoma, where she will take a summer course. En route home she will visit Miss Lillian Harper in Oklahoma City and her brother, J. H. Turley, in Pine Bluff, Ark.

Mrs. M. A. Dinsmore, of Birmingham will be the guest of relatives here this week.

Mrs. Avery Stott of Chattanooga, is the expected guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Brock.

PARTY FOR MRS. HAPPER

A pretty party was given on Saturday afternoon by Mrs. W. R. Nelson for her guest, Mrs. C. T. Happer, of Birmingham—the guest list including members of the Friday Thirteen and neighborhood friends. The Nelson home on Wells street was a bower of flowers, noticeable among these being a profusion of Dorothy Perkins roses. Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon and a prize, ice tea glasses, for high score was awarded to Mrs. C. B. Elliott and the booby prize fell to Mrs. Russell Greene. Mrs. Happer was presented earrings as a souvenir of the party.

Tempting refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. D. G. Perkins, Mrs. C. B. Elliott, Mrs. John Knight, Mrs. H. Carpenter, Mrs. J. Y. Hamill, Mrs. Jack Smiley Mrs. Weakley Cunningham, Mrs. A. A. Hardage, Mrs. Sara Jeffries, Mrs. H. D. Burnum, Mrs. Happer, Mrs. Rufus Pearson, Mrs. W. N. Cowden, Mrs. T. M. Jones, Jr., Mrs. S. H. Malone, Mrs. W. M. Bailey, Mrs. William Moseley, Jr., Miss Miriam Sherrod, Mrs. Russell Greene, and Mrs. B. M. Bloodworth. A posy of sweet peas were placed on each plate as favors.

The Ladies Bible Class of Westminster Presbyterian church, together with other friends, surprised Mrs. Ida Rothfuss, at her home on Gordon Drive, with a birthday party on Saturday. The afternoon passed pleasantly with a graduating examination in which all received diplomas in cube root, physics, physical geography and art. The diplomas were snappy mottoes.

Those present were Mesdames Eliza Williams, Jarvis, E. M. Odom, Miss Mollie Odom Miss Amelia Troy, Mrs. A. D. Jervis, Mesdames Elizabeth Jervis, B. W. Fink, Allen, Johnson, Runyan, Weigand, George Norwood, Christiansen, W. H. Winton, McCarty, Mrs. Rothfuss and daughter.

Miss Christina Copeland, member of the faculty of Albany Schools, left this morning for her home in Glenwood, Ala., to spend her vacation.

Miss Emily Wood returned to her home in Tuskegee, Ala., this morning.

Mrs. S. D. Lewis of Tusculumbia, was called to the bedside of Mrs. Jim Petey, arriving here yesterday.

Mrs. S. D. Brock returned home last week from Asheville, N. C., where she visited her daughter, Mrs. R. E. Ford. En route home she visited in Chattanooga.

Mrs. M. E. Ellis of Little Rock, Ark., is the guest of friends here.

Mrs. D. C. Vohlers has returned from a month's stay with relatives in Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Penny spent Sunday with relatives in Huntsville.

On Friday night at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lewis, Mrs. Thos. Brooksnee, Mary Hodges, bride of a few weeks, was given a surprise shower. Mrs. R. G. McClure presented Mrs. Brooks with a beautiful set of hand painted china which was given by a number of her friends. At a late hour delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Lewis, assisted by her mother Mrs. Hodges.

Mrs. Walter Durham of Cleveland, Miss., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Poole.

Miss Holt of Tennessee and Miss Nell Chilton of Nashville, Tenn., who have been teaching in Birmingham joined Miss Pittman and Mr. Charles Smyrl here Sunday and they motored to Lynville, Tenn., the home of Miss Pittman.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Moore of Huntsville expect to move here soon to make their home.

PARTY FOR VISITORS.

Mrs. A. E. Humphrey entertained at cards on Saturday evening to compliment Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Sowell and Mrs. Paige, of Columbia, Tenn., who were the house guests of Mrs. L. C. Mayes.

Mrs. Jim Foreman, who was operated on recently at the Benevolent Hospital, continues to improve.

Mrs. Talley of Birmingham who spent last week with her sister, Mrs. L. A. Hobert, returned to her home last night.

Miss Lucile Williams returned here last week to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Williams. Miss Williams was a student of Florence Normal.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Sowell and daughter, Jane, and Mrs. A. S. Paige, returned to their homes in Columbia, Tenn. on Sunday after a few days' visit to Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Mayes.

Mrs. McCampbell will return to her home in Athens, Tenn., tonight after an extended visit to her aunt, Mrs. John A. Thomason.

Mrs. Sam Schulman left yesterday in her car for Nashville to join Mr. Schulman and they will make their home there.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Williams motored to Pulaski, Tenn., on Sunday to visit his parents. They were accompanied home by their little daughter, Evelyn, who has been visiting there.

Athens News

Athens, Ala. May 4—Perry Henderson, who had been for some days in the Baptist Hospital in Birmingham, returned home yesterday afternoon much improved. Mr. Henderson was unfortunate in getting run over on the streets of Athens some weeks ago and suffered a broken hip. He is not able to walk yet, but by using crutches he hopes to be able to walk in the near future.

W. L. Martin returned last Sunday from Barr's Infirmary where he underwent a successful operation. He is getting along nicely, being able to get out on the streets again. His gentle personality is welcomed again on our streets.

Dewey Surles, the popular assistant Express Master of Athens suffered the misfortune to get his arm broken early Thursday morning when he went to the garage to crank his Ford to go to work. It is giving him much pain today, but all hope to see him on his job again soon.

Amusements

Heralded by press and public as the snappiest peepiest and fastest shows to have played their respective cities the Pete Pate Syncopated Steppers comes to the Masonic Theater for a three day engagement commencing today with a complete change of wardrobe, scenery and programme each night and a special matinee Wednesday.

Heading the cast of the Pete Pate Co., are the two well known blackface comedians of minstrel fame Walter Wright and Russell Wilson.

Ably assisting Wright and Wilson are Jack C. Bell Violinist Supreme, Edwin Grimes and the one man Jazz Band, The Syncopated Trio and the Misses Marsee and Ragsdale two clever terpsichorian artists.

Pete Pate points with pride to his chorus of pretty Hollywood Beauties and the girls are said to be one of the outstanding features of the Syncopated Steppers Show.

PERSONALS

C. W. Black is quite ill at his residence in West Albany.

Judge Lowe, Solicitor D. C. Almon, Solicitor T. C. Almon, Sheriff Poole and Circuit Court Clerk, J. L. Draper, will motor to Huntsville this afternoon to the baseball game.

Barrett Shelton and Baynard Malone returned Sunday from Washington and Lee College and will spend the summer vacation at home.

T. F. Turley will leave about the eighth of this month for a two months stay at Red Boiling Springs, Tenn.

Mack Dinsmore of Birmingham is visiting relatives here.

Jackson Calvin, C. E. Malone, Jr., and George Harvey have returned home from their school work at Belle Buckle, Tenn.

Earle Vaughn of Moulton was a visitor here Sunday.

L. F. Cardin, chairman of the Albany L. & N. shops, left for Louisville today on business.

Laughs and romance glows warm on Harry Carey's latest and greatest starring vehicle "Canyon of the Fools" just released by F. B. O. and showing at the Masonic theater today.

Based on Richard Matthews Hall's great novel of the West, a country the author knows intimately from study, "Canyon of the Fools" makes an admirable vehicle for the virile and red-blooded Carey.

It makes no pretensions at art but is a smash-bang, wallowing tale that will get under the skin of every lover of thrilling screen stories. Carey, as usual, has a hard time in winning his way to the heights but win he does in most approved fashion.
